Ogunquit – On the southern coast, Ogunquit is the quintessential year round destination. An artist colony, it's known for its galleries, restaurants, antique shops, theater and nightlife, and famous for Footbridge Beach, its three miles of sandy beach and Marginal Way, the delightful coastal walkway.

Jackman – Northern Maine is truly the land for the outdoor adventurer. Just miles from the Canadian border, Jackman is the perfect destination for the snowmobiler or ATV enthusiast. There is fishing in dozens of surrounding lakes and streams as well as canoeing and whitewater rafting. And everyone can enjoy gorgeous mountain views and the occasional glimpse of a moose.
