

The Northeast Experience™

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAWSUIT AGAINST INNSEASON RESORTS FILED BY INTERVAL INTERNATIONAL, INC.

West Yarmouth, Massachusetts (March 22, 2010) – InnSeason Resorts disclosed today that a lawsuit has been filed against certain of its related companies by Interval International, Inc. The law suit was filed by Interval International in the Miami-Dade County Circuit Court in Florida on March 16.

The lawsuit relates to disagreements about InnSeason Resorts' post-affiliation obligations to Interval International and related matters. According to InnSeason Chairman and CEO Billy Curran, InnSeason Resorts has a long history of excellent relations with Interval International and hopes that the matters may be resolved amicably through further dialog. However, Mr. Curran is confident that a review of the facts will demonstrate that his company has acted appropriately and in good faith, and is prepared to defend the matters vigorously.

No further statement or information is available from InnSeason Resorts at this time.

InnSeason Resorts®, creators of the Northeast Experience® and leading providers of resort vacation and ownership opportunities in the northeast United States, is the developer of InnSeason Vacation Club®, a points-based vacation ownership program designed to provide maximum flexibility to its members. Its principals have decades of experience in developing and marketing resorts and focus on serving niche markets in unique circumstances. The firm combines the marketing resources of Curran Management Services and its founder, William E. “Billy“ Curran, CEO, and the development and operations expertise of Dennis M. Ducharme, RRP, President.

###

CONTACT:

InnSeason Resorts
Scott MacGregor
(508) 957-1800