INNSEASON RESORTS NAMES CATHY LEYDEN CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

West Yarmouth, MA - InnSeason Resorts®, creators of the Northeast Experience® and leading providers of resort vacation and ownership opportunities, recently announced the promotion of Cathy Leyden to Chief Financial Officer.

Dennis Ducharme, President of InnSeason Resorts says. "Cathy has been instrumental in not only the ongoing success of InnSeason Resorts but the finalization of our vision to develop RiverWalk at Loon, which just broke ground last month, after years of planning and negotiations. Her financial acumen proved invaluable in procuring capital and facilitating the cash flows from financing activities for this long term New Hampshire project."

Leyden joined the company in September of 2008 as the Budget and Business Analyst, and then served as Director of Accounting and Finance where she supervised the financial and accounting teams at the company's West Yarmouth corporate headquarters. She was promoted to Vice President of Finance in May of 2013. As CFO she oversees risk management and compliance as well as development of company-wide budgets and forecasts and analysis of key business drivers for InnSeason Resorts, its subsidiaries and RiverWalk Grand Resort at Loon Mountain in Lincoln, NH.

After Cathy earned a BA in Psychology at San Diego State University and an MBA in Accounting as a fellow at Suffolk University's Sawyer School of Management in Boston, she became a CPA. While in public accounting, she worked in taxation and auditing before moving on to the Corporate Accounting sector. Originally from Los Angeles, Cathy, her musician husband, Jack and their daughter Maya, now call Cape Cod home.

InnSeason Resorts®, creators of the Northeast Experience®, is a leading provider of resort vacation and ownership opportunities in the northeast U.S., and delivers "best-in-class" management, advisory and marketing services to resorts and developers nation-wide.
